

The Orchestra

Source Unknown
Arr. Brad Holmes

High
The vi - o - lins play it they

Med. High
The trum - pet goes trum - pet da da dum dum dum

Beginner
The horns, the horns, they

Alto
The clar - i - net, the clar - i - net goes

Easy/Low
The drums have no trou - ble just

Bass
The - bas - soon it makes a point of coun - ter - point bah

sing as they say it. They sway as they trum - pet da da dum dum dum trum - pet da da dum. The trum - pet goes play with scorn. The horns, the doo - dle doo - dle doo - dle doo - dle det. The clar - i - net, the rub - a - dub - dub - ble. Five one. One dah bah dah bah dah dah bah dah bah dah bah The bas - soon it makes a point of play it. They sing all they say.

trum - pet da da dum dum dum trum - pet da da dum dum dum horns, they play with scorn.

clar - i - net goes doo - dle doo - dle doo - dle det.

five. Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom.

coun - ter - point bah dah bah dah bah dah dah.

Begin with the clarinet and the trumpet. The horns and the drums may then be added. Beginners will have more success on these two parts. The violins and the bassoon are more difficult and should be layered onto the texture last by more experienced singers. Consider making up your own part for other instruments based on their own sound, i.e., flutes that toot and trombones that slide, etc.